M.A. in Economics (programme outcomes)

Economics

M.A. Students studying economics have developed legal awareness, they understand people on different structures of the economy, various activities of production, pricing, poverty, unemployment have developed among students, awareness of government income, expenditure and economic activities among students has come.

M.A. in Economics (programme specific outcomes)

Economics

- An understanding of the microeconomic system has evolved.
- understand the macroeconomic social structure.
- Developed understanding of various numerical interpretations of data.
- Indian economy understood.
- industrial economics understood.
- Different principles of merchandise sales understood.
- Developed understanding of energy and business cycles.
- Detailed information of research technique was received.
- Policy making in the Indian economy understood.
- labor economy understood.
- Different principles of economic growth understood.
- International trade understood in detail.
- Government income expenditure and debt system understood.
- Environmental and resource economics understood.
- Knowledge of various demographic aspects of the economy.
- Gained knowledge of various aspects of economic development.
- Institutions understood in the international economy.
- Gained knowledge of public income and expenditure and tax systems.
- Knowledge gained by studying the role of education and health in the economy.
- Verbal ability developed through oral questions.